The disputants are: --Affirmative, Johnson, 71, Merriam, 72; Negative, Sweet, 71, Beach, 72. Debate followed on the question, Is the division of classes according to stand preferable to an alphabetical arrangement? All the disputants spoke; then it was thrown open to the house and discussed with earnestness. Both chair and house decided for the affirmative. Voted that hereafter no one shall speak more than once on the question. H. A. Strong, Vice-Secretary pro tern. The foot-races for the benefit of the Navy, have been postponed until early next term. The entry book will be closed on Saturday, April 9th, and all persons wishing to enter the races will please hand in their names to Mr. Bone, of the Senior class, before that time. PUBLISHER S NOTES. New England Energy.--About three thousand men are employed on the Air Line Road, and at several points work is carried on night and day. At Reed s Gap, it was predicted that eighteen months would be the least time possible in which the rock could be removed and the road-bed brought to the proper grade; but by the use of steam, the diamond drill and nitro-glycerine, backed by the determination of the projectors, it has been accomplished in one-half of that time. The same energy which carried the project over the immense opposition it met in its early days, is felt...
