The key aspiration of this study is to make a fair review of requirement of strategy within an organization. IMP is the integration of the critical requirements of a business to run efficiently and successfully. It requires various theories, strategies and techniques which can help the organization to work efficiently and prosper in future. The report has been divided into three sections. The first section of the report portrays the company analysis of the firm, EasyJet airlines. The firm has been proven very successful with its unique approach and customer oriented services. But due to various reasons, its main market segment, Europe, appears to be saturated with the low-cost airlines of similar nature. The first section reflects the face of the airline industry with the introduction to EasyJet. This firm...
