Excerpt: .nature of the provision made for teachers in the Notes on Scripture Lessons, published by the Sundayschool Union. The apology made on behalf of the Union was that the necessary limitations of space in a penny monthly publication rendered a better provision impossible. The average space then devoted to each lesson in the Notes was three pages, and the subject was the Gospel history; but Mr. Mimpriss, in his manuals, had only devoted one page to a lesson, and into that page he had put (1) a summary of the facts of the lesson, (2) a series of explanations of difficult words or phrases, (3) a clear indication of the geography of the lesson, (4) an epitome of the practical truths taught in the narrative, (5) a series of references connecting the lesson with its predecessors, and (6) two sets of questions with which to...
