

Industrial Arts in Our Elementary Schools (Classic Reprint)

By Alanson Harrison Edgerton

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Industrial Arts in Our Elementary Schools Americans should be proud of our democratic claim that free education is provided in each public rural and urban school in the United States. However, our taith in this boast cannot carry much conviction, either with ourselves or with others, unless the elementary schools are seriously concerned with those human activities that contribute most in preparing for the many-sided demands which confront all intelligent consumers and worthy citizens. If our elementary industrial arts courses are to continue to occupy an important place in the program for elementary education, they must soon be subjected to the same general tests and judged by the same high standards that apply to the other elementary school subjects. The relative possibilities in the different plans for realizing common objectives also must be determined more scientifically than heretofore. These brief reports dealing with the various units of elementary industrial arts work and study, which were successfully organized and conducted by Miss Hunter and the several other teachers named in connection with their respective contributions, were...
